STOCKS.

Market active but irregular throughout with frequent changes from firms to depression, and prices at the close were generally lower than yesterday. Western Union was the most active, while Hamilton & St. Joe cotton declined from 10 to 10 1/2 bid and 2 1/2 do. in the day, but advanced again, coming in at 3 00 bid and 4 00 asked. The Hamilton & St.
Joe directors at a meeting to-day resolved to convert the 8 per cent. bonds into stock provided that there was legal right to do so, and authorized the officers of the company to make such conversion in case of a decision favorable to their right.

Omaha Wholesale Market.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, Friday Evening, September 16.

This has been a very disagreeable day on the streets. A cold, drizzling rain has been falling since early this morning.
Trade has been rather dull for retail, while the wholesalers have had all they could do to wail on their customers, the bad weather driving thousands from the fair grounds.
Those intending to purchase goods before returning home have spent the day in examining and laying in stocks.

Very few transactions in grain have been reported and no changes noted.
